++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mainly dry with sunny spells.

Today:
A warm day in mainly areas with good spells of sunshine. Some showers this afternoon but lighter and fewer than of late. Parts of north Highlands and Outer Hebrides will be cloudier and cooler. Light winds. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Tonight:
Showers soon dying out to leave a dry night with clear periods. Still some patches of mist and low cloud, especially over Caithness. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Wednesday:
Most places will be dry with plenty of warm sunshine. Dull, misty conditions with a little drizzle will edge into West Coast in the afternoon and evening. Light winds. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
High pressure will maintain mostly dry, settled weather over the next few days with plenty of warm sunshine. However some mist and low cloud will affect West Coast at times.
